

Masaya Sasaki

www.linkedin.com/in/masaya-sasaki

403 S. Locust St UB 6718, Greencastle, IN, 46135 – 765-301-8001 – masayasasaki_2021@depauw.edu Objective Bi-lingual: Japanese and English. One of the six Grew Bancroft Scholar for 2016, an internationally recognized scholarship in Japan for future leaders bridging Japan and the United States.

Experience Overseas Market Researcher

POL Co., Tokyo, Japan

April 2017 – May 2017

Working closely with the CEO, conducted research on lab-tech companies overseas in order to provide insights for new business development in Japan.

Apprentice

EIS, Singapore

February 2017 – March 2017

Helped miscellaneous jobs in a medium-small enterprise in Singapore. Job-shadowed sales meetings.

Education DePauw University, Greencastle, IN, United States
Cognitive Science Major
GPA 4.00/4.00

Grew Bancroft Scholarship Award Winner 4-year undergraduate scholarship for studying at top liberal arts college from Japanese high schools. Six students are selected every year.

Rector Scholarship Award Winner
DePauw University's oldest and preeminent merit academic award, which provides student with full-tuition scholarship and programming.

Honor Scholar Program
Exclusive academic honors program.

Zeze Prefectural High School, Otsu, Shiga, Japan
March 2016
GPA 4.51/5.00

Leadership

Tennis Team Captain

Organized 60 members as the captain of the tennis team. Since we did not have a coach, I managed the whole team, created strategies for practice, selected team members, and motivated the members.

Placed third in Prefectural High School Tournament team competition. Participated in Kinki (Shiga, Kyoto, Osaka, Hyogo, Nara, and Wakayama) Tournament

Old Gold Market Founder

Founder of Old Gold Market, a university based startup creating an online marketplace platform that enables DePauw students to buy and sell second-hand goods.

International student advisory board

Proposing and organizing workshops supporting international student's adaption to DePauw University.